

Jayme Blakesley is the Special Assistant to the Chief Counsel at the Federal Transit Administration. In addition to his primary role of assisting the Chief Counsel, he is FTA's lead attorney on Buy America and Joint Development.

Mr. Blakesley was awarded the Secretary of Transportation's Gold Medal for work he performed to implement the National Strategy to Reduce Congestion on America's Transportation Network, and a Superior Achievement Award for his accomplishments in the fields of Buy America, Public Private Partnerships, Livability, and Joint Development. In September 2009, Mass Transit Magazine named Mr. Blakesley one of the Top 40 under 40, a list honoring those professionals who have made significant contributions to the public transit industry.

Mr. Blakesley entered federal service through the Presidential Management Fellowship Program, of which he is a graduate. Prior to joining FTA, Mr. Blakesley worked on transportation issues for the Office of the Utah Attorney General and the Utah Transit Authority.

Mr. Blakesley holds a Bachelor of Arts from Brigham Young University and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Utah. He is a member of the Utah State Bar and the Transportation Research Board's Committee on Transit and Intermodal Transportation Law.